

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Series 1. Correspondence from George Tudor

George V. Tudor Second World War
Correspondence Collection

2-12-1942

1942-02-12, George to Family

George V. Tudor

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/gvtudor_correspondence_from

Recommended Citation

Tudor, George V., "1942-02-12, George to Family" (1942). Series 1. Correspondence from George Tudor. 7.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/gvtudor_correspondence_from/7

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the George V. Tudor Second World War Correspondence Collection at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Series 1. Correspondence from George Tudor by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1942-02-12, George to Family

Keywords

1942-02-12, 6:20 PM, San Diego, California, Marine Corps Base

Identifier

2015-083-w-r_Tudor_WWII_1942-02-12

Mrs Mary Lavery
5914 So Green Street
Chicago
Illinois

2-12-1942
6:20 P.M.

Hi Folks;

Received your most welcome letter today. It takes about two days for the letters to arrive.

Sorry about the money, but that was the only way I could send it. When they say quarantine they mean just that. I forgot to tell you about the things that we are allowed to receive. Among the forbidden fruits are cookies. We can receive them but we have to share them with the entire platoon and there are only thirty one fellows in a platoon.

Can't wait for your next letter, really when the mail comes everyone waits for their name to be called. So far I have been pretty lucky. Lets hope that it stays that way.

Have started to correspond with several different parties and expect to do a lot of writing in the future. Letter writing is the only privilege that we are allowed so far. So I might as well be an accomplished letter writer as well as a Good Gyrene.

Am sending you my copy of the Leatherneck and the post paper. Have subscribed to the Leatherneck so you can expect a copy every month. This Marine tradition is really alright. All of our lectures so far have been on the history of our corps, and believe me it is really interesting.

Am trying to finish this letter before lights out which is 9:00 P.M. Have been interrupted several times but have written a little bit so please forgive me if this letter is a little short

So Long
of George

P.S. Received a letter from Geo.
Parlington and was very much surprised